'Brand new album and a super hot band'

Artist/Band: Jeanette Murphy
Album title: 'Defining Moments'

Singer, songwriter Jeanette Murphy is a independent recording artist from London UK. Jeanette is now releasing her latest album 'Defining Moments' - featuring 11 original tracks and her first work as a producer.

Her songwriting style is an of eclectic mix of Folk, Rock, New Indie and Jazz... and she has been described as a cross between Tracy Chapman and Joan Armatrading.

Previous album releases and tour success as a solo artist includes her debut album 'Biting', with live and guest appearances on TV Shows, including Showbiz UK, Ulster TV, C4, C5. Radio listings on Radio 2 & Radio 4, GLR and IRN with live radio performances and interviews across the UK, Scotland and Ireland.

With the new album comes a new super hot band to tour the UK and eventually europe. The band members are a strong selection of truly talented musicians with Steve Gee on bass, Drummer and percussionist - Paul Haydon, Saal Seneviratne on keyboards & banjo and the dexterous Tyrone Thomas on acoustic and lead Guitars, plus special guest players from South West London's Irish music sessions.

Jeanette's new CD 'Defining Moments' and digital downloads are available through her website at jeanettemurphy.com and at major online music stores: iTunes, Google, Amazon and cdbaby.
